TAX REDUCTION FIRST IN COOLIDGE'S MESSAGE

Must Have Right-of-Way Over All
Other Legislation, President
Tells Congress

SEES IT PARAMOUNT SERVICE

Opposed to A Soldiers Bonus, Coolidge Says Flatly And Without Qualification

LEAGUE CLOSED INCIDENT

Believes Senate Should Approve
Harding World Court—Would Revise Freight Rates

By LAWRENCE MARTIN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
Washington, December 6.—Tax reduction must have right of way over all other legislation, President Coolidge declared today in his first message to Congress.

"Of all services which the Congress can render to the country, I have no hesitation in declaring this one to be paramount," he said. "The country wants this measure to have the right of way over all others." He is opposed to soldier's bonus, the President said flatly and without qualification.

MESSAGE CRISPLY WORDED
The message, more eagerly awaited by the country than any presidential utterance in years, was a crisply worded document that covered virtually every problem confronting the administration and the country. It was a series of clear cut, concise, exceedingly definite statements and recommendations. It left no doubt of Mr. Coolidge's exact position on every subject discussed.

In sentences which, like his exact statements on tax reduction and the bonus, defied distortion or misinterpretation of his attitude, Mr. Coolidge said that:

The senate should approve the Harding world court.

The League of Nations is "a closed incident" so far as the United States is concerned.

The tariff law has produced "abounding prosperity" and should not be tinkered with.

Congress should immediately provide for revision of freight rates.

RAILROAD CONSOLIDATION
Permissive consolidation of railroads should be authorized, to be followed, if necessary, by compulsory consolidation.

The farmers must help themselves

FEEBLE REACTION FROM THE CONGRESS

Clear That President Coolidge Must Wait to See How Country Takes His Message

APPLAUSE BRIEF, SCATTERED

The Capitol, Washington, Dec. 6.—President Coolidge today gave congress and the American people his program and his platform.

In his first message to congress—a message stamped as the first act of his campaign for the presidency in 1924—the President ended his silence on national problems. He dealt more or less definitely with the whole range of national and international affairs.

The message was his first big test as president.

The reaction of congress was disappointingly feeble. It was clear before Mr. Coolidge finished, that he and his supporters must wait for the broader reaction of the whole country before being able accurately to appraise the effect of the message.

Mr. Coolidge received the most respectable attention from the house and senate all through the reading of his seven thousand word address. He received considerable applause but it was for the most part brief and scattered.

Most of his recommendations were received in dead silence by the congress.

MESSAGE BRISTLES WITH CRISP SENTENCES

Washington, Dec. 5.—President Coolidge's message to Congress today bristled with crisp, pithy sentences. Here are some of them:

We attend to our own affairs  but we recognize thoroughly our obligation to help others.

Partisanship has no place in our foreign relations.

I do not propose to make merchandise of any American principles.

We shall persevere in well doing, not by force, but by reason. To reduce war taxes is to give every home a better chance.

Free government has no greater menace than disrespect for authority.

A people who neglect their national defense are putting in jeopardy their national honor.

The Humanitarian side of government should not be repressed, but cultivated.

American institutions rest solely on good citizenship.

Those who do not want to be partakers of the American spirit should not settle in America.

It is necessary not only to have faith, but to make sacrifices for our faith.

out of their troubles, aided to a degree by the government.

Selective immigration with registration of aliens should be adopted.

Muske Shores should be sold to somebody who will produce cheap fertilizer.

Every citizen should help uphold the prohibition law.

The army and navy should be strengthened.

The negro problem should be dealt with at once by Congress.

Coal prices should be reduced, and the government be given emergency powers to prevent fuel famines and profiteering.

The Monroe doctrine should be upheld.

Russia cannot be recognized until she repents.

DEATH OF HARDING
Mr. Coolidge opened his message with an announcement to congress of the death of President Harding, and paid his predecessor this tribute:

"He has left his mark upon history. He has made justice more certain and peace more secure."

Congress and his administration face the duty, the President said, of developing and supporting the Harding policies.

From his brief word of eulogy, Mr. Coolidge swung directly into his message, with no waste of words. He first took up

FOREIGN AFFAIRS

America is at peace with everybody, he said, and her desire is to perpetuate that peace by granting and requiring full justice. An American policy—minding our own business, recognizing our obligation to help others, but reserving "to the decision of our own judgement the time, the place and the method"—must guide, he said. Neither he nor the senate purposes any change towards the league of nations.

"America has taken her place in the world  free, independent, powerful. The best service that can be rendered to humanity is the assurance that this place will be maintained," President asserted.

Declaring he is in accord with the traditional policy of avoiding alliances, and of settling international disputes peacefully, Mr. Coolidge said

Near East Relief Contributions Go Above $70 Today

Contributions to Near East Relief mounted to $70.06 today, according to L. Link, the county treasurer, who is receiving contributions at the Rush County National bank and will forward them to state headquarters.

The fund is the result of the observance of Golden Rule Sunday, at which time people were urged to eat a simple meal and give the difference for the support of orphans in Near East countries. The Kiwanis club had a Golden Rule meal at their regular luncheon Wednesday and netted $10.65.

POLICE MAY NOT GET NEW HEADQUARTERS

Councilmen Disposed to Favor Program of Remodeling City Building First of Year

TO HOUSE ALL CITY OFFICES

The police may not secure headquarters until after the first of year, it was indicated today by some of the city council, who are anxious to remodel the city building in order to accommodate all city offices, and any move now on the part of the police department, would be only temporary, if the plans advanced materialize.

The plan was first made Tuesday night at the council meeting, when it was definitely decided to abandon the horse drawn fire wagon, and replace it with a light hose and chemical truck, which would make all of the room necessary for the police department and other city offices.

Some of the councilmen indicated today that the matter of purchasing a chassis for the fire truck would be taken up soon, and the construction of the fire truck got under way, so that the city building could be worked over and made suitable for police headquarters.

The expense of motorizing the hose truck would be small, it is pointed out, and the rest of the remodeling of the building would not be a big item, as something must be done soon, or the building will be condemned as a fire hazard in the business district.

EIGHTEEN HELD IN SPENCER PROBE

ALL ARE FROM BICKNELL

Former Prosecuting Attorney Accused of Being Organizer and Ring Leader of Gang

Bicknell, Ind., Dec. 6.—Eighteen men were arrested here today charged with being members of the gang of bandits which terrorized the town of Spencer, a month ago, and robbed the two banks of $17,000.

Those under arrest are: Earl Loucks, former assistant prosecuting attorney; Cecil Squires, Fred Oberhoff, Basil McCarty, Garland Beachner, Walter Stotts, Kenneth Alison and Walter Howard.

Loucks is charged with being the ring leader of the gang. According to Knox county officials, who aided in the investigation leading up to the arrest, Loucks recruited a gang of sixteen men, among the town "tough characters" of Bicknell.

In a series of robberies of hardware stores throughout Knox county, the rifles, revolvers and ammunition, used in the Spencer robbery, were obtained.

Loucks carefully trained his men in preparation for the raid on Spencer, according to authorities. Every man was assigned a definite part in

Fresh indications were seen today of a successful membership campaign this year. The canvass of the last block of six townships closed Wednesday evening and reports filtering into the county office of the Farm Bureau here disclose that this year's membership will be exceeded. MOTOR BUS, HOG TRUCK COLLIDE

Two Passengers And Bus Driver Hurt, But Two Men Hauling Live Stock Escape

COLLISION ON A BRIDGE

Substantial Railing Prevents Vehicles From Toppling Over—Rushville Men Injured

A passenger bus and a large stock truck figured in a serious mishap Wednesday night about six o'clock, on the Indianapolis road, just east of New Palestine, and several persons narrowly escaped injuries, when the two machines collided and were badly wrecked.

The passenger bus was owned by Claude W. Stucker of this city, and the stock truck was owned by Callie Harcourt of Milroy. The truck was loaded with hogs, and three were killed as the result of the collision.

Three occupants of the passenger bus were bruised and cut, but were not seriously injured. Mr. Harcourt and another Milroy man on the hog truck escaped injuries.

Those in the passenger bus, which was headed toward Rushville, were Harry Markley, 901 North George street; Bert Lambert of Morristown and Joe Metcalf, the driver of the bus. The drivers of the two machines failed to see each other in time on account of the rain and mist and they collided on a narrow bridge.

AWARDED BIG SUM

ON ESTATE CLAIM

Frank P. Jones Given $4,248.49 in Circuit Court—Hasty Case May be Continued

IS SCHEDULED FOR MONDAY

Evidence on a claim was heard in the circuit court this morning, in which Frank P. Jones was awarded $4,248.49 and costs against the estate of Elizabeth L. Jones, deceased. Among other business in court this morning was the dismissal of the case of the American Security Company against John A. Jones, a plaintiff to foreclose a mortgage.

In the state case against John Hasty, accused of conspiracy to commit a felony, the defense today was preparing a motion for a continuance from next Monday it being understood that the main witness for the defense is expected to be continued, and a physician's certificate was to be presented to that effect.

The defendant is charged with three others of conspiring to steal chickens. They reside near Carthage, and the state elected to try John Hasty first.

In event that this case is carried over, the jury will not be used until next Wednesday, when Fred Cleverger is scheduled to go on trial on a charge of transporting liquor, following his arrest of week before last.

Tax Reduction First
In Coolidge's Message

he favors a court including the whole world. As the Harding world court plan pending before the senate is the "only practical plan on which many nations have ever agreed, though it may not meet every desire, I therefore commend it to the favorable consideration of the senate with the proposed reservations clearly indicating our refusal to adhere to the league of nations," he said.

He urged the court be considered without partisanship and pointed out that it is "merely a convenient instrument of adjustment to which we could go, but to which we could not be brought."

RUSSIA

Russia must show "works mete for repentance" before American recognition will be accorded, the President said. Desiring friendship with the Russian people, America "ought to be the first to go to the economic and moral rescue" of Russia when that nation meets the conditions, he said. There is no objection to Americans trading with Russia, but "our government does not propose to enter into relations with another regime which refuses to recognize the sanctity of international obligations. I do not propose to barter away for the privilege of trade any of the cherished rights of humanity. I do not propose to make merchandise of any American principles."

The President said he is, however, ready to make "very large concessions for the purpose of rescuing the people of Russia." Encouraging evidence of Russia's return to the ways of ordinary society are to be detected, but there must be more, he said. Conditions precedent to American recognition, he said, are: Compensation of Americans despoiled by Russia; payment of the debt incurred by the Russian Republic, and abatement of "the active spirit of enmity to our institutions."

DEBTS

The President included a pointed reminder to debtor nations that this government expects them to pay. He emphatically opposed cancellation. He said claims of thousands of American citizens against Germany will be safeguarded.

Here he referred to the recent effort to aid Europe to stability and restoration through the Hughes plan. As to future policy in this regard, he said: "We shall persevere in well doing, not by force, but by reason."

FOREIGN SERVICE

In one sentence he recommended reorganization and improvement of the diplomatic and consular service.

FINANCES AND TAXES

Declaring domestic questions the main problem of the country, he said financial stability is vital. Drastic economies, preservation of the budget system, and reduction of taxes must be the main items in this program of financial stabilizing, he said.

He said he had treated more in detail of tax reduction in his message transmitting the budget. He approved the Mellon tax deduction plan, especially commanding tax reduction on earned incomes, and "further abolition of admission, message and nuisance taxes." He said the "amusement and educational value of moving pictures ought not to be taxed." He opposed excess profits taxes, and said local as well as national taxes should come down. Abolition of tax exempt securities by constitutional amendment he strongly urged.

TARIFF

The Fordney-McCumber law has secured abundant revenue and brought prosperity, he said, advising against tariff tinkering as "disturbing and harmful."

SHIPPING

Until the merchant fleet can be disposed of to advantage, it will be administered "as economically as possible" under plans devised by the Shipping Board.

PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS

Resumption of flood control work on the Mississippi and Colorado rivers; improvement of the Lakes-Gulf waterway, development of the St. Lawrence waterway, and power development in northeastern states should all be encouraged.

RAILROADS

Congress should await the supreme court's decision on the recapture clause of the railroad law before new legislation on rate-making. The railroad labor board should be left undisturbed until some other tribunal is agreed on between capital and labor.

COURTS

A commission should be named to revise the laws. Two more federal judges should be provided for the southern district of New York, one in the northern district of Georgia, and two more in the Circuit court of appeals for the eighth circuit. A commission should be created to expedite court business.

Government prison reform is needed. Two reformatories should be provided—one for women, one for first offenders. A bureau of criminal immigration should be carefully restricted, with immigrants selected abroad, and registration of aliens here, so that only those intending to become Americans could remain.

INSULAR POSSESSIONS

He unqualifiedly endorsed administration of the Philippines by Gen. Leonard Wood and gave similar recommendation to all other administrators of island possessions.

EDUCATION AND WELFARE

He advocated child labor and minimum wage amendments to the constitution, and creation of an education department, with its head a member of the cabinet.

IMMIGRATION

Immigration should be carefully restricted, with immigrants selected abroad, and registration of aliens here, so that only those intending to become Americans could remain.

VETERANS AND BONUS

He said the veterans must be given every care; the service in their behalf "must be clean"; promised to remedy evils disclosed by the senate investigation, and recommended that all government hospitals be permitted to treat all veterans of all wars, and that new hospitals be built for such purpose. He urged careful consideration of veterans' legislation to be proposed by the American Legion. Of the bonus, he disposed in this sentence:

"But I do not favor granting of a bonus."

COAL

Public welfare requires reduction of fuel prices, the president said. Neither should fuel famines be tolerated.

He urged careful consideration of the coal commissions' report; said publicly about the industry was probably as far as the government could go in controlling wages and prices in normal times; opposed government ownership and operation of mines, and requested power to name a commission to act in fuel emergencies to prevent famines, profiteering and strikes.

REORGANIZATION

With exception of proposed combination of the war and navy departments, he approved the Brown plan of reorganization.

PROHIBITION

The President referred to the treaty being negotiated with Great Britain to stop rum smuggling, and said the coast guard ought to be provided with fast motor boats to catch rum runners. Sources of liquor should be "rigidly regulated" and every effort made to stop interstate traffic. Urging co-operation of state and nation, he said disrespect for the prohibition law is a menace, and said citizens should not only obey the law, but let it be known they are opposed to others violating it.

THE NEGRO

He advocated strict anti-lynching laws, and formation of a commission to study the negro problem from industrial and economical angles.

CIVIL SERVICE

This should be maintained, Mr. Coolidge said. He advocated adding first, second and third-class postmasters, and the field force of the prohibition service to the classified list.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS

He opposed a "pork barrel" public buildings bill, but advocated an annual appropriation of $5,000,000 to provide needed government buildings.

REGULATORY LAWS

He advised laws to prevent harbor pollution, regulate aviation, radio interference, loading of ships, Alaskan fisheries. Revision of Federal trade commission procedure is needed, he said.

ARMY AND NAVY

Both services have been reduced "to the danger point," he said. "Both should be strengthened. Additional planes are needed for the Army, and additional submarines for the Navy." Panama canal defenses should be perfected. Hating war, America should avoid "weakness that invites imposition."

INSULAR POSSESSIONS

He unqualifiedly endorsed administration of the Philippines by Gen. Leonard Wood and gave similar recommendation to all other administrators of island possessions.

EDUCATION AND WELFARE

He advocated child labor and minimum wage amendments to the constitution, and creation of an education department, with its head a member of the cabinet.

IMMIGRATION

Immigration should be carefully restricted, with immigrants selected abroad, and registration of aliens here, so that only those intending to become Americans could remain.

VETERANS AND BONUS

He said the veterans must be given every care; the service in their behalf "must be clean"; promised to remedy evils disclosed by the senate investigation, and recommended that all government hospitals be permitted to treat all veterans of all wars, and that new hospitals be built for such purpose. He urged careful consideration of veterans' legislation to be proposed by the American Legion. Of the bonus, he disposed in this sentence:

"But I do not favor granting of a bonus."

COAL

Public welfare requires reduction of fuel prices, the president said. Neither should fuel famines be tolerated.

He urged careful consideration of the coal commissions' report; said publicly about the industry was probably as far as the government could go in controlling wages and prices in normal times; opposed government ownership and operation of mines, and requested power to name a commission to act in fuel emergencies to prevent famines, profiteering and strikes.

GET UNDERSTANDING:— A scioner seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not; but knowledge is easy unto him that understandeth.—Proverbs 14: 6.

The President's Message
President Coolidge, in making tax reduction the leading recommendation of his message to congress, has sensed the feeling of the country in regard to the matter and disregarded the wishes of the small minority of radicals who want to put the excess profits features back in the federal tax law and increase the surtaxes.

"Of all services which Congress can render to the country, I have no hesitation in declaring this one to be paramount," he said. "The country wants this measure to have the right-of-way over all others."

Previous to the opening of congress, President Coolidge declared himself squarely behind the proposal for tax reduction made by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon. The mild-mannered man created somewhat of a stir when he announced recently that congress would be able to reduce income taxes $323,000,000 if no extraordinary expenditures are made.

This, of course, eliminates the consideration of a soldiers' bonus, and the president again followed the cue of the secretary of the treasury, when he declared himself unequivocally opposed to the bonus at this time.

The president made it very plain that "minding our own business" is to continue to be the foreign policy of the United States, meanwhile recognizing our responsibility in helping others, but "reserving to the decision of our own judgment the time, the place and the method."

But the president clearly recognizes that domestic questions are the main problem of the country and that financial stability is vital. Protecting the budget system and reduction of taxes are the principal things that should concern the present congress, and the legislative body will do well to follow Mr. Coolidge's advice.

The time has come, the president very truly said, to share the benefits of governmental economies, past and in prospect, with the people by reducing the tax burden, and pointed out that this aim can be accomplished only by the rigorous adherence of congress to budget estimates and the defeat by congress of all extraordinary measures not contemplated in the budget.

Specifically, the executive asked for appropriations of $3,018,069,946, the difference between appropriations which carry over from year to year.

A surplus of $395,681,634 in the government's financial operations for the next fiscal year was estimated, as compared with an estimated surplus of $329,639,624 this year and an actual surplus of $309,657,460 in the fiscal year which ended June 30, 1923.

These figures, Mr. Coolidge told congress, "certainly justify the view that we can stand a reduction in our ordinary return and still achieve a balanced budget."

Sinclair Lewis is quoted as saying that he loves England. Now we understand why he wrote "Main Street."

There is a shortage of one million houses in the United States officials of the National Housing association estimate. Yes, yes, lots of us are short one.

The high cost of money is one of the factors blamed for the blockade on houses. Hum, hum, where did we hear before that money came high?

What will you give your husband for Christmas? Let us suggest three dozen ash trays.

What will you give your wife? We suggest a spool of silk thread to match your silk socks.

But no one is going to quarrel with money, high or low, because it is a good friend to have sticking around.

Folks who never forget their grievances soon find that their friends have forgotten them.

A good reputation is much to be desired, but living up to it is another matter.

This is morally middling certain. Two presidential candidates can't be nominated from California; though Ohio has turned the trick in her time.

MOVIESBig Feature at Castle

Rex Beach's story of the Klondike gold rush, "The Spoilers," has lost none of its glamor, none of its vividness and none of its drama in the years that have passed since it was written—and that have passed since it was first put on the screen ten years ago by Colonel Selig. The new version, produced by Jesse D. Hampton, with Lambert Hillyer directing, was shown last night at the Castle theatre and it held the big audience completely in its grasp. It will be seen again today and Thursday. The production is on a bigger and more spectacular scale than was the original as was to be expected, seeing how rapid the progress and technique of making pictures has been, and the great shafts staffed between the hero and the villain surpasses that of a decade ago.

"The Spoilers" is a true picture of life in the Klondike gold rush and the attempt of certain unprincipled adventurers to jump the claims of the early miners. Its story has a peculiar fascination over the minds of red-blooded Americans. The picture is one of the best made in recent years and there is no doubt that it will repeat the big success of its first screen incarnation.

The cast is certainly one of the most notable that has ever been seen in one photoplay. It reads like a "Who's Who" of the screen—Milton Sills, Barbara Bedford, Anna Q. Nilsson, Noah Beery, Robert Edeson, Mitchell Lewis, Wallace MacDonald, Ford Sterling, Robert McKim, Sam de Grasse, John Elliott, Louis Fazenda, Kate Price, Rockcliffe Fellowes, Gordon Russell, Albert Roscoe, Tom McGuire and Jack Curtis.

A Crook Play
A fine cast appears in the new Edwin Carewe production, "Mighty Lak' a Rose," released by First National and to be shown again today at the Princess Theatre.

In this cast are Dorothy Mackail, a pretty young English girl, who has been appearing lately in the Ziegfeld Follies; James Rennie, leading man in "Shore Leave"; Sam Hardy, who is supporting Lenore Ulric in "Kiki"; Anders Randolf, Helene Montrose, Paul Panzer and Harry Short. Another fine actor who has a prominent part in the picture is Jean Bronte, a Scotch collie, an exceptionally intelligent dog.

"Mighty Lak' a Rose" is a crook play. It shows the power of music not only in "swell" society but in the underworld where desperate crooks plan desperate work. The story is a battle of a violin, in the hands of a beautiful and innocent girl, against wayward souls. Mr. Carewe is said to have made a picture that is gripping in delineation of men and women who are gradually drawn from the wide and crooked path to the straight and narrow one. He has built up a smashing climax wherein some of these old, hardened crooks take on a social covering that allows them to enter society homes.

From The Daily Republican
Monday, Dec. 7, 1908

Three sons of J. B. Schirlette celebrated their birthday anniversary last Friday. It is a rather extraordinary occurrence for three brothers to have a birthday on the same day.

Miss Ethel Kuntz entertained at dinner yesterday the following guests, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Norris of Cambridge City, Mr. Walter Jordon of Connersville and Miss Nellie Lyons of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Newkirk of North Morgan street announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Flossie to Mr. Will Winship, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Winship. The wedding will occur at the home of the bride's parents, December 22.

It is an assured fact that Rushville will be represented upon the Lyceum platform some time in the near future. The Daily Student, the official publication of Indiana University, announces a proposed trip through California, by a concern company, recently organized in the university of which Miss Florence Frazer of this city is a member. Miss Frazer will sing soprano in the company.

Mrs. Douglas Madden, who underwent an operation at the sanitarium last week, is improving rapidly.

Something new and novel in the way of entertainment may be seen at the Grand theatre tonight. The old fiddlers' contest promises to be one of the most laughable affairs ever presented here. Many contestants have already entered and will make an earnest endeavor to win the many valuable prizes which have been offered by the liberal business men of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Matlock came down from Indianapolis Sunday to spend the day with Mr. Matlock's brother, Mr. D. F. Matlock and sisters, Mrs. Thomas Bates and Mrs. T. J. Fox. Mrs. Fox leaves for Colorado Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kratzer were at Indianapolis Sunday visiting their daughter Mrs. Fred McCloud. Their little grand daughter accompanied them home.

Miss Florence Guffin, daughter of Hon. H. E. Guffin, is the guest of Miss Gwendolyn Murphy in Connersville.

John L. Hostetter of New Salem left last week for California, where he will spend the winter with his brother.

Mrs. Ed Lee is visiting her son, Dr. John Lee, in Indianapolis, for a short time.

Tax Reduction First

he favors a court including the whole world. As the Harding world court plan pending before the senate is the "only practical plan on which many nations have ever agreed, though it may not meet every desire, I therefore commend it to the favorable consideration of the senate with the proposed reservations clearly indicating our refusal to adhere to the league of nations," he said.

He urged the court be considered without partisanship and pointed out that it is "merely a convenient instrument of adjustment to which we could go, but to which we could not be brought."

RUSSIA

Russia must show "works mete for repentance" before American recognition will be accorded, the President said. Desiring friendship with the Russian people, America "ought to be the first to go to the economic and moral rescue" of Russia when that nation meets the conditions, he said. There is no objection to Americans trading with Russia, but "our government does not propose to enter into relations with another regime which refuses to recognize the sanctity of international obligations. I do not propose to barter away for the privilege of trade any of the cherished rights of humanity. I do not propose to make merchandise of any American principles."

The President said he is, however, ready to make "very large concessions for the purpose of rescuing the people of Russia." Encouraging evidence of Russia's return to the ways of ordinary society are to be detected, but there must be more, he said. Conditions precedent to American recognition, he said, are: Compensation of Americans despoiled by Russia; payment of the debt incurred by the Russian Republic, and abatement of "the active spirit of enmity to our institutions."

DEBTS

The President included a pointed reminder to debtor nations that this government expects them to pay. He emphatically opposed cancellation.

He said claims of thousands of American citizens against Germany will be safeguarded.

Here he referred to the recent effort to aid Europe to stability and restoration through the Hughes plan. As to future policy in this regard, he said: "We shall persevere in well doing, not by force, but by reason."

FOREIGN SERVICE

In one sentence he recommended reorganization and improvement of the diplomatic and consular service.

FINANCES AND TAXES

Declaring domestic questions the main problem of the country, he said financial stability is vital. Drastic economies, preservation of the budget system, and reduction of taxes must be the main items in this program of financial stabilizing, he said.

He said he had treated more in detail of tax reduction in his message transmitting the budget. He approved the Mellon tax deduction plan, especially commanding tax reduction on earned incomes, and "further abolition of admission, message and nuisance taxes." He said the "amusement and educational value of moving pictures ought not to be taxed." He opposed excess profits taxes, and said local as well as national taxes should come down. Abolition of tax exempt securities by constitutional amendment he strongly urged.

TARIFF

The Fordney-McCumber law has secured abundant revenue and brought prosperity, he said, advising against tariff tinkering as "disturbing and harmful."

SHIPPING

Until the merchant fleet can be disposed of to advantage, it will be administered "as economically as possible" under plans devised by the Shipping Board.

PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS

Resumption of flood control work on the Mississippi and Colorado rivers; improvement of the Lakes-Gulf waterway, development of the St. Lawrence waterway, and power development in northeastern states should all be encouraged.

RAILROADS

Congress should await the supreme court's decision on the recapture clause of the railroad law before new legislation on rate-making. The railroad labor board should be left undisturbed until some other tribunal is agreed on between capital and labor.

COURTS

A commission should be named to revise the laws. Two more federal judges should be provided for the southern district of New York, one in the northern district of Georgia, and two more in the Circuit court of appeals for the eighth circuit. A commission should be created to expedite court business.

EDUCATION AND WELFARE

He advocated child labor and minimum wage amendments to the constitution, and creation of an education department, with its head a member of the cabinet.

IMMIGRATION

Immigration should be carefully restricted, with immigrants selected abroad, and registration of aliens here, so that only those intending to become Americans could remain.

VETERANS AND BONUSES

He said the veterans must be given every care; the service in their behalf "must be clean"; promised to remedy evils disclosed by the senate investigation, and recommended that all government hospitals be permitted to treat free all veterans of all wars, and that new hospitals be built for such purpose.

He urged careful consideration of veterans' legislation to be proposed by the American Legion.

Of the bonus, he disposed in this sentence:

"But I do not favor granting of a bonus."

COAL

Public welfare requires reduction of fuel prices, the president said. Neither should fuel famines be tolerated. He urged careful consideration of the coal commissions' report; said publicity about the industry was probably as far as the government could go in controlling wages and prices in normal times; opposed government ownership and operation of mines, and requested power to name a commission to act in fuel emergencies to prevent famines, profiteering and strikes.

REORGANIZATION

With exception of proposed combination of the war and navy departments, he approved the Brown

AGRICULTURE

No complicated scheme of relief, no resort to the Treasury will settle the farm problem, Mr. Coolidge said. "Simple and direct methods put into operation by the farmer himself are the only real sources for restoration," he declared. Measures of relief that may be afforded he listed thus: Reduction of national and local taxes; lowered freight rates; reduction of wheat acreage; co-operative marketing; government loans as emergency aid; cheaper fertilizer; courses in organization and co-operative marketing in agricultural schools; assistance for wheat exports through the war finance corporation.

MUSCLE SHOALS

Subject to the right to take it back in war time, the government should settle the Grand Senior Wardens, Earl Lines, Connersville. This situation has never before existed in the history of the order as the officers are generally chosen with some regard to their geographical distribution.

After the work Friday evening, refreshments of oysters will be served.

Every member is being urged to at-the coast guard ought to be provided with fast motor boats to catch rum runners. Sources of liquor should be "rigidly regulated" and every effort made to stop interstate traffic. Urging co-operation of state and nation, he said disrespect for the prohibition law is a menace, and said citizens should not only obey the law, but let it be known they are opposed to others violating it.

THE NEGRO

He advocated strict anti-lynching laws, and formation of a commission to study the negro problem from industrial and economical angles.

CIVIL SERVICE

This should be maintained, Mr. Coolidge said. He advocated adding first, second and third-class postmasters, and the field force of the prohibition service to the classified list.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS

He opposed a "pork barrel" public buildings bill, but advocated an annual appropriation of $5,000,000 to provide needed government buildings.

REGULATORY LAWS

He advised laws to prevent harbor pollution, regulate aviation, radio interference, loading of ships, Alaskan fisheries. Revision of Federal trade commission procedure is needed, he said.

ARMY AND NAVY

Both services have been reduced "to the danger point," he said. "Both should be strengthened. Additional planes are needed for the Army, and additional submarines for the Navy." Panama canal defenses should be perfected. Hating war, America should avoid "weakness that invites imposition."

INSULAR POSSESSIONS

He unqualifiedly endorsed administration of the Philippines by Gen. Leonard Wood and gave similar recommendation to all other administrators of island possessions.

COACHES SET A FAST CLIP, WIN

County Basketball Mentors Display Their Wares in Rushville For The First Time

DEFEAT WESTLAND QUINTET

Net Team Composed Mostly of Former High School Stars Downed by Score of 47-22

The Rush County Coaches team showed their wares Wednesday night when they downed the fast Westland independent team, 47 to 22, in a game played on the Modern Appliance floor before a good sized crowd of basket fans.

The Coaches displayed fast team work, and soon after the game was under way, they began to take the lead, and the score mounted. The Westland team, composed for the most part of former Carthage high school stars, was fast, but was unlucky on the basket at times, failing to make many easy shots.

Means led the scoring of the Coaches with eight field goals, while Headlee and Scales contributed their share. Dyer and Moore for the visiting team were the bright lights, and broke through for several good shots. The score at the first half was 20 to 8. The line-up and summary:

COACHES 47 WESTLAND 22
Scales F Dyer
Means F Moore
Headlee C John White
Hinchman G Hankins
Royalty G James White

Substitutions, Coaches, Patterson, Jinks, Hyatt; Westland, Addison, Coffin. Field goals, Headlee 4, Means 8, Scales 3, Patterson 2, Jinks 3, Dyer 3, Moore 2, John White, Hankins, Addison; fouls Royalty, Means 3, Scales 3, Patterson 2, Dyer, Moore, Hankins. Referee Litherland, Indianapolis.

Romeos Win Opener

The Rushville Romeos defeated the Rushville Kelts, 21 to 19 in an overtime game played Wednesday night on the Modern Appliance floor, as a curtain raiser to the Coaches-Westland game.

The Kelts were leading at the half but the Romeos had too much of a comeback for them. The winners won the game without the services of two regulars, Taber and Raby. The Romeos play the Brightwood Independents of Indianapolis here December 17.

Bedford plays at Bloomington Friday night. If Bloomington upsets the dope and wins, we will be in a terrible predicament with Shelbyville. They figure down there that the Camels rank in first place, but from what we hear from Bloomington they think that Shelby—well is just rank, and that's all.

The Rushville girl's game is expected to be a good one, as the Rushville team won from the Fairview girls on the local floor a few weeks ago by a close score of 16 to 13.

Yours,
ANOTHER BLUE BIRD

Say, Carthage, what daja think we are building down here—an ark?

We've gotta stable, not a bird cage. This county barn is for horses, with a stall set aside for the Cows, from Moscow.

MAYBE WE'LL DREAD 'EM TOO

The Spiders are having tough luck with their webb. About tourney time we'll wager that they will be ready to stage a real comeback, and even Milroy will dread to meet 'em.

WEBSTER WAS TOO MODERN FOR US

Just as Newcastle was getting ready to call their team "Alibis", one of the scribes suggested the name of White Elephants, but that didn't fit, so they have dubbed them the "Trojans". Webster gave 'em the name, but we went back further than Webster—Noah found the Lions far more courageous, and always full of fight.

Indianapolis high schools pry open the can Friday night. Didja ever hear tell of 'em before?

The're Still Ordered

Dear Hittin' 'em—I am a booster of the Rushville high school. What has become of those glass banking boards that you said were ordered several weeks ago? Yours,

A DONATOR

A BLOW UP IS COMIN'

CITY OFFICIALS
GIVE GAS PLANT

THE ONCE OVER

Getting ready for the balloon to go up Friday night, eh, Frankfort?

Take your gas masks along too, Bobby, or the Kokos might scorch your Hot Dogs.

Washington (not the father of our country, but Washington Indiana) is going to play at Sanborn Friday night. Is that a suburb of Podunk, or is it as big as Passiac, N. J., George?

Bedford plays at Bloomington Friday night. If Bloomington upsets the dope and wins, we will be in a terrible predicament with Shelbyville. They figure down there that the Camels rank in first place, but from what we hear from Bloomington they think that Shelby—well is just rank, and that's all.

The Rushville girl's game is expected to be a good one, as the Rushville team won from the Fairview girls on the local floor a few weeks ago by a close score of 16 to 13.

RUSHVILLE TEAMS TO BE IN THREE GAMES

Varsity And Third String Players Going to Greensburg for Contests Friday Night

The Rushville high school basketball squad will figure in three games Friday night, with the varsity team playing at Greensburg, and with the second team playing the second team at Connerville. Other players and substitutes will form a third team that will tangle as a curtain raiser at Greensburg with the second team of that city.

The usual second team line-up will be taken to Connerville with Wainwright and Arbuckle, forwards; Christopher center; Conover and Cherry guards. The team that will meet the second team from Greensburg will probably start with Joyce and Miller at forwards, Lakin at center; Warth and Sherman guards.

The varsity squad will probably start with Snoddy and Hilligoss at forwards, Walker, center; McNamara and Comella at guards, and with Newbold and other players ready to fill in.

According to word from Greensburg, the team of that city is preparing to win the game, and even up for defeats suffered in the last two seasons. Last year Rushville won by three points up here, and the year before Havie Frazee's team walloped Greensburg 50 to 9 on the Greensburg floor.

WANT NEW HIGH SCHOOL GYM

Bloomington Citizens Favor Campaign For A Building

FIFTEEN I. U. MEN TO RECEIVE SWEATERS

With Only Two Lost By Graduation, Prospects Are Bright For Good Team Next Year

BOTH PLAYED WELL THIS YEAR

Bloomington, Ind., Dec. 6.—Bloomington citizens are getting behind a campaign for a new high school gymnasium. Members of the school board will call a mass meeting in the near future to consider means of raising funds for the building.

Other cities like Martinsville, Columbus and Bedford which have just completed gyms, have forced Bloomington to make some move, Roy O. Pike, school board member declared.

Superintendent Tiery said the lack of suitable quarters for physical education is a serious handicap to education.

Bloomington, Ind., Dec. 6.—Fifteen members of the Indiana University football squad which closed its season with a victory over Purdue, will be awarded "I" sweaters, according to the announcement made early this week at a football banquet. All of the men receiving the coveted letter participated in the Purdue game. The letter men chose Joe Sloate, of Akron, O., to captain the 1924 team.

The list of new "I" men follows: Captain Butler, Wabash; Captain-Elect Joe Sloate, Akron, O.; Elmer Wilkens, Ft. Wayne; Harry Hollick, Lafayette; Irvin Springer, Evansville; George Fisher, Medora; Elder Eberhart, Evansville; Max Lorber, Columbia City; Earl Moonaw, Bluffton; Bill Prucha, Chicago; Laurence Marks, Wabash; Dick Woodward, Lapel; John Zivich, East Chicago; Bill Zaiser, Indianapolis; and Sam Ninnes, Ironwood, Mich.

With only two men lost by graduation, prospects are brighter for a winning team next fall. Elmer Wilkens, hero of the Purdue game, and Elder Eberhart, regular ends, will not be available for service.

The loss of these men undoubtedly will be felt keenly, but W. A. Ingram, who coached the Crimson eleven this fall, believes that there will be many capable men on hand to fill the vacancies.

EIGHT ARRESTS IN SPENCER PROBE

the holdup so there would be no confusion.

The men drilled for the robbery and knew every detail of their part, it is said.

The other eight men in the alleged bandit squad will be arrested within a short time, authorities said. Four or five left the state after the robbery but they are all "spotted".

Floyd Young, prosecuting attorney of Knox county, obtained part of the information leading to the arrests from questioning prisoners in the Knox county jail.

INTEREST TURNS TO STATE MEETING

day's canvass for members, that this year's total, would at least be equalled, if not bettered. One team in Noble township is reported to have the record, according to early reports, having obtained seven new members to the Farm Bureau, in addition to obtaining renewals from all of their prospects.

Bedford plays at Bloomington Friday night. If Bloomington upsets the dope and wins, we will be in a terrible predicament with Shelbyville. They figure down there that the Camels rank in first place, but from what we hear from Bloomington they think that Shelby—well is just rank, and that's all.

It is definitely settled now that there will be no speaker from outside the county at the annual meeting of the county bureau. The sessions will begin at ten o'clock in the morning and continue through the afternoon, and will be much of the same character as they were last year.

The reports of the county agent and the county officers will be heard and the program for the coming year will be outlined. Election of officers for the forthcoming year will be about the last order of business.

VOTE ON TARIFF VS FREE TRADE

Great Britain To Decide Whether To Embark On Policy Of Protective Tariff Or Free Trade

TO BE ON PARTY LINES

Premier Baldwin Asks For Mandate To Inaugurate Tariff To Remedy Employment Situation

By P. M. SARTL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

London, Dec. 6—Polling opened this morning all over Great Britain and the six-county area of Ulster, in what promises to be the fiercest, clean-cut election on party lines for the past twenty years.

In a nutshell, the single problem before the electors is whether Britain is to embark on a policy of protective tariffs or to continue to wave the banner of free trade.

The tariff question was raised at the 1906 and 1910 elections, but there were innumerable side issues; in the first mentioned clash there was the natural reaction against a conservative government after ten years unbroken rule and in 1910 there were burning domestic problems, such as the abolition or otherwise of the House of Lords' veto powers and Lloyd George's violent campaign for old-age pensions, land taxation, etc.

There were two elections in 1910 (one in January and one in December), giving almost identical results—and the Conservatives, pledged to a tariff policy, very nearly won. The Conservatives actually secured a majority over the Liberals—then reckoned as the only serious second party, and who were then in power—and it was only by means of an agreement with the Labor party and Irish Nationalists that Premier Asquith was able to continue in power. The Irish Nationalists' vote was frankly pro-Irish, and, like the Labor vote, was not necessarily anti-tariff.

Today Conservative Premier Stanley Baldwin frankly asks for a mandate to inaugurate a tariff, which he is convinced is the only remedy for the serious unemployment problem. Baldwin, only premier for less than seven months, found himself bound by the pledge of the late Premier Andrew Bonar Law, that during the life of the Parliament elected November, 1922, there would be no material change of tariff policy. In announcing his decision to dissolve Parliament and call a fresh election, Baldwin declared that he felt it was the only course for an honest man, and he simply asked the electors for a mandate to carry out his policy—not very definitely defined just yet, except that he promised there would be no taxes on wheat or meat, butter, eggs, cheese, bacon and kindred foodstuffs.

In reply to this policy the Liberals have little to offer beyond a flat opposition to tariffs in any shape or form. Labor's panacea is the "Capital Levy," or a graduated levy on all incomes and fortunes, large or small.

While normally experts would predict a comfortable victory for the Conservatives, the tariff issue has always been so sharply contested in Britain that the most experienced are chary about pronosticating, and it is conceded that much depends on the women's vote—the housewife being regarded as more susceptible to agitations against any form of taxation which will touch her housekeeping accounts.

Some three thousand polling stations are being used today, mostly in town halls, schools, libraries, and other government and municipal buildings. School children at the elementary schools rejoiced in a holiday, as their classrooms were needed for voting. Most of the booths opened at 8 a.m. and will close at 8 p.m., but in industrial districts the Labor party generally exercised their prerogative of opening the booths an hour earlier and continuing until 9 p.m. (The extra two hours may be claimed by any party or body of electors.)

Results in most towns are as will be known tonight, commencing about 10:30 p.m., while country districts will not start counting until noon tomorrow. The complete results should be known by tomorrow evening, with the exception of a couple of University constituencies, which run at three or five day poll, and the remote Orkney and Shetland Islands, from which it frequently takes a week or ten days to receive reports.

72 OF REGIMENT LEFT

Martinsville, Ind., Dec. 6—Only 72 members of the 79th regiment, of volunteers in the Civil War are still living, according to a list received from the pension department in Washington. Two of the survivors live in Morgan county. The 79th was one of the first two regiments to plant their colors atop Missionary ridge after the Confederates had been repulsed.

Elwood—With only 25 arrests during November, Elwood police report the quietest month of the year.

NAVARRE PEARLS
—an early shopping suggestion

WITH the holiday season but a few weeks away, thoughts turn naturally to the selection of suitable gifts for those near and dear to us. If the gift is for a woman—consider pearls. No other gift can please her more—or last more permanently as an evidence of your affection or regard. And to be on the safe side, select Navarre Pearls.

The ultimate in pearl reproduction, Navarre Pearls, are indestructible and reflect the subdued sheen of the genuine Oriental, the fire of the opalescent, gently touched by soft tints of rose. Sold only through jewelers—and in this city exclusively by

12 Good Reasons Why You Should Have An Account With This Strong Association

BECAUSE it is ABSOLUTELY SAFE. We loan on First Mortgages on improved Rushville and Rush County real estate.

BECAUSE we never go over two-thirds the value and generally about one-half.

BECAUSE with every payment our security gets better.

BECAUSE We HAVE NO BAD OR DOUBTFUL LOANS, and if any loss should develop in the future we have a fund of $3500.00 to take care of it. This fund can be used for no other purpose.

BECAUSE the title to the property is investigated and is "good" before we will accept the loan.

BECAUSE we require borrowers to carry insurance to protect us in case of loss by fire or storm, usually to the full amount of the loan.

BECAUSE we are under State Examination the same as Banks and Trust Companies.

BECAUSE our active officers are under a heavy SURETY Company bond.

BECAUSE you can deposit to suit your convenience and you can withdraw in whole or in part WITHOUT NOTICE.

BECAUSE WE PAY 6 PER CENT AND NOT 3 OR 4 PER CENT. If not withdrawn this interest draws interest as it is compounded.

BECAUSE if you do not own your own home, possibly we can help you accumulate enough to make your payment of a part of the purchase price and we can help you with the balance.

BECAUSE there are many more GOOD reasons and no BAD ones.

Drop in and see us, maybe we can be of some benefit to you.

We will be pleased to see you.

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was an operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation, if you write to me. Eugene M. TAX REDUCTION FIRST IN COOLIDGE'S MESSAGE

LEAGUE CLOSED INCIDENT

Believes Senate Should Approve
Harding World Court—Would Revise Freight Rates

By LAWRENCE MARTIN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, December 6.—Tax reduction must have right of way over all other legislation, President Coolidge declared today in his first message to Congress.

"Of all services which the Congress can render to the country, I have no hesitation in declaring this one to be paramount," he said. "The country wants this measure to have the right of way over all others."

He is opposed to soldier's bonus, the President said flatly and without qualification.

MESSAGE CRISPLY WORDED

The message, more eagerly awaited by the country than any presidential utterance in years, was a crisply worded document that covered virtually every problem confronting the administration and the country. It was a series of clear cut, concise, exceedingly definite statements and recommendations. It left no doubt of Mr. Coolidge's exact position on every subject he discussed.

In sentences which, like his exact statements on tax reduction and the bonus, defied distortion or misinterpretation of his attitude, Mr. Coolidge said that:

The senate should approve the Harding world court.

The League of Nations is "a closed incident" so far as the United States is concerned.

The tariff law has produced "abounding prosperity" and should not be tinkered with.

Congress should immediately provide for revision of freight rates.

RAILROAD CONSOLIDATION

Permissive consolidation of railroads should be authorized, to be followed, if necessary, by compulsory consolidation.

The farmers must help themselves

FEBLE REACTION FROM THE CONGRESS

Clear That President Coolidge Must Wait to See How Country Takes His Message

APPLAUSE BRIEF, SCATTERED

The Capitol, Washington, Dec. 6.—President Coolidge today gave congress and the American people his program and his platform.

In his first message to congress—a message stamped as the first act of his campaign for the presidency in 1924—the President ended his silence on national problems. He dealt more or less definitely with the whole range of national and international affairs.

The message was his first big test as president.

The reaction of congress was disappointingly feeble. It was clear before Mr. Coolidge finished, that he and his supporters must wait for the broader reaction of the whole country before being able accurately to appraise the effect of the message.

Mr. Coolidge received the most respectable attention from the house and senate all through the reading of his seven thousand word address. He received considerable applause but it was for the most part brief and scattered.

Most of his recommendations were received in dead silence by the congress.

MESSAGE BRISTLES WITH CRISP SENTENCES

Washington, Dec. 5.—President Coolidge's message to Congress today bristled with crisp, pithy sentences. Here are some of them:

We attend to our own affairs • • • but we recognize thoroughly our obligation to help others.

Partisanship has no place in our foreign relations.

I do not propose to make merchandise of any American principles.

We shall persevere in well doing, not by force, but by reason.

To reduce war taxes is to give every home a better chance.

Free government has no greater menace than disrespect for authority.

A people who neglect their national defense are putting in jeopardy their national honor.

The Humanitarian side of government should not be repressed, but cultivated.

American institutions rest solely on good citizenship.

Those who do not want to be partakers of the American spirit should not settle in America.

It is necessary not only to have faith, but to make sacrifices for our faith.

out of their troubles, aided to a degree by the government.

Selective immigration with registration of aliens should be adopted.

Muscle Shoals should be sold to somebody who will produce cheap fertilizer.

Every citizen should help uphold the prohibition law.

The army and navy should be strengthened.

The negro problem should be dealt with at once by Congress.

Coal prices should be reduced, and the government be given emergency powers to prevent fuel famines and profiteering.

The Monroe doctrine should be upheld.

Russia cannot be recognized until she repents.

DEATH OF HARDING

Mr. Coolidge opened his message with an announcement to congress of the death of President Harding, and paid his predecessor this tribute:

"He has left his mark upon history. He has made justice more certain and peace more secure."

Congress and his administration face the duty, the President said, of developing and supporting the Harding policies.

From his brief word of eulogy, Mr. Coolidge swung directly into his message, with no waste of words. He first took up

FOREIGN AFFAIRS

America is at peace with everybody, he said, and her desire is to perpetuate that peace by granting and requiring full justice. An American policy—minding our own business, recognizing our obligation to help others, but reserving "to the decision of our own judgement the time, the place and the method"—must guide, he said. Neither he nor the senate purposes any change towards the league of nations.

"America has taken her place in the world  free, independent, powerful. The best service that can be rendered to humanity is the assurance that this place will be maintained," President asserted.

WORLD COURT

Declaring he is in accord with the traditional policy of avoiding alliances, and of settling international disputes peacefully, Mr. Coolidge said

Near East Relief Contributions Go Above $70 Today

Contributions to Near East Relief mounted to $70.06 today, according to L. Link, the county treasurer, who is receiving contributions at the Rush County National bank and will forward them to state headquarters.

The fund is the result of the observance of Golden Rule Sunday, at which time people were urged to eat a simple meal and give the difference for the support of orphans in Near East countries. The Kiwanis club had a Golden Rule meal at their regular luncheon Wednesday and netted $10.65.

POLICE MAY NOT GET NEW HEADQUARTERS

Councilmen Disposed to Favor Program of Remodeling City Building First of Year

TO HOUSE ALL CITY OFFICES

The police may not secure headquarters until after the first of year, it was indicated today by some of the city council, who are anxious to remodel the city building in order to accommodate all city offices, and any move now on the part of the police department, would be only temporary, if the plans advanced materialize.

The Monroe doctrine should be upheld.

Russia cannot be recognized until she repents.

EIGHTEEN HELD

Charged With Being Members of Gang Who Terrorized Town and Robbed Bank of $17,000

ALL ARE FROM BICKNELL

Former Prosecuting Attorney Accused of Being Organizer and Ring Leader of Gang

Bicknell, Ind., Dec. 6.—Eighteen men were arrested here today charged with being members of the gang of bandits which terrorized the town of Spencer, a month ago, and robbed the two banks of $17,000.

Those under arrest are: Earl Loucks, former assistant prosecuting attorney; Cecil Squires, Fred Oberhoff, Basil McCarty, Garland Beachler, Walter Stotts, Kenneth Alison and Walter Howard.

Loucks is charged with being the ring leader of the gang. According to Knox county officials, who aided in the investigation leading up to the arrest, Loucks recruited a gang of sixteen men, among the town "tough characters" of Bicknell.

In a series of robberies of hardware stores throughout Knox county, the rifles, revolvers and ammunition, used in the Spencer robbery, were obtained.

Loucks carefully trained his men in preparation for the raid on Spencer, according to authorities. Every man was assigned a definite part in

A GOLD MINE IN HIS OWN BACK YARD

MOTOR BUS, HOG TRUCK COLLIDE

Two Passengers And Bus Driver Hurt, But Two Men Hauling Live Stock Escape

COLLISION ON A BRIDGE

Substantial Railing Prevents Vehicles From Toppling Over—Rushville Men Injured

A passenger bus and a large stock truck figured in a serious mishap Wednesday night about six o'clock, on the Indianapolis road, just east of New Palestine, and several persons narrowly escaped injuries, when the two machines collided and were badly wrecked.

The passenger bus was owned by Claude W. Stucker of this city, and the stock truck was owned by Callie Harcourt of Milroy. The truck was loaded with hogs, and three were killed as the result of the collision.

Three occupants of the passenger bus were bruised and cut, but were not seriously injured. Mr. Harcourt and another Milroy man on the hog truck escaped injuries.

Those in the passenger bus, which was headed toward Rushville, were Harry Markley, 901 North George street; Bert Lambert of Morristown and Joe Metcalfe, the driver of the bus. The drivers of the two machines failed to see each other in time on account of the rain and mist and they collided on a narrow bridge.

The Rushville passenger, Mr. Markley, was badly cut and bruised, but he was not seriously hurt. The driver of the bus had a deep scalp wound, but he was said to be recovering today.

The Morristown passenger suffered an injury to a leg, but no bones were broken. The two Milroy men escaped miraculously.

On account of the weight of both vehicles, they plowed into each other, and would have turned over if it had not been for a substantial railing on the bridge. Each machine was badly wrecked. It is said that neither driver was responsible.

The injured persons were attended to by physicians at New Palestine, and the two Rushville men, were brought here late last night.

The motor bus is one of several that are used in the bus line that operates between Indianapolis and Connersville. Mr. Stucker, who investigated the accident, stated he would stand liable for damages to passengers injured.

The hogs were being shipped from near Milroy to the Indianapolis market, and were being sent overland in the large truck owned by Mr. Harcourt.

CASH WAR STAMPS NOW IS REQUEST

Local Postal Authorities Want Holders to Present Them Before Christmas Rush

GET THEIR CHECKS SOONER

In order to get their checks soon after the first of the year, owners of War Savings Stamps of the 1919 issue, which fall due Jan. 1, 1924, are urged to present them at the postoffice at once for payment. Rushville postal officials made this request today, declaring that owners who presented their War Stamps now were sure to get service, whereas if they wait until the Christmas rush is under way, the postoffice force will be unable to handle them.

A new stock of Treasury Savings Certificates have been received at the postoffice so as to accommodate holders of War Savings Stamps who wish to exchange them for the new government securities. Popular denominations are $20, $80, and $800, which mature in five years to a cash value of $25, $100 and $1,000 respectively. This nets about four and one-half percent interest.

The Rushville postoffice sold $334,000 worth of War Savings Stamps of the 1918 issue and cashed about $170,000 worth this year. Some were cashed by the banks and others are still held by the owners. No estimate has been made on the amount of the 1919 issue sold.

ON ESTATE CLAIM

Frank P. Jones Given $4,248.40 in Circuit Court—Hasty Case May be Continued

18 SCHEDULED FOR MONDAY

Evidence on a claim was heard in the circuit court this morning, in which Frank P. Jones was awarded $4,248.40 and costs, against the estate of Elizabeth L. Jones, deceased. Among other business in court this morning was the dismissal of the case of the American Security Company v. Saugop V. Young, trustee, sued plaintiff to foreclose a mortgage.

In the state case against John Hasty, accused of conspiracy to commit a felony, the defense today was preparing a motion for a continuance from next Monday it being understood that the main witness for the defense is expected to be continued, and a physician's certificate was to be presented to that effect.

The defendant is charged with three others of conspiring to steal chickens. They reside near Carthage, and the state elected to try John Hasty first.

In event that this case is carried over, the jury will not be used until next Wednesday, when Fred Cleverger is scheduled to go on trial on a charge of transporting liquor, following his arrest of week before last.

Tax Reduction First

he favors a court including the whole world. As the Harding world court plan pending before the senate is the "only practical plan on which many nations have ever agreed, though it may not meet every desire, I therefore commend it to the favorable consideration of the senate with the proposed reservations clearly indicating our refusal to adhere to the league of nations," he said.

He urged the court be considered without partisanship and pointed out that it is "merely a convenient instrument of adjustment to which we could go, but to which we could not be brought."

RUSSIA

Russia must show "works meet for repentence" before American recognition will be accorded, the President said. Desiring friendship with the Russian people, America "ought to be the first to go to the economic and moral rescue" of Russia when that nation meets the conditions, he said. There is no objection to Americans trading with Russia, but "our government does not propose to enter into relations with another regime which refuses to recognize the sanctity of international obligations. I do not propose to barter away for the privilege of trade any of the cherished rights of humanity. I do not propose to make merchandise of any American principles."

The President said he is, however, ready to make "very large concessions for the purpose of rescuing the people of Russia." Encouraging evidence of Russian return to the ways of ordinary society are to be detected, but there must be more, he said. Conditions precedent to American recognition, he said, are: Compensation of Americans despoiled by Russia; payment of the debt incurred by the Russian Republic, and abatement of "the active spirit of enmity to our institutions."

DEBTS

The President included a pointed reminder to debtor nations that this government expects them to pay. He emphatically opposed cancellation.

He said claims of thousands of American citizens against Germany will be safeguarded.

Here he referred to the recent effort to aid Europe to stability and restoration through the Hughes plan. As to future policy in this regard, he said: "We shall persevere in well doing, not by force, but by reason."

FOREIGN SERVICE

In one sentence he recommended reorganization and improvement of the diplomatic and consular service.

FINANCES AND TAXES
Declaring domestic questions the main problem of the country, he said financial stability is vital. Drastic economies, preservation of the budget system, and reduction of taxes must be the main items in this program of financial stabilizing, he said. He said he had treated more in detail of tax reduction in his message transmitting the budget. He approved the Mellon tax deduction plan, especially commending tax reduction on earned incomes, and "further abolition of admission, message and nuisance taxes." He said the "amusement and educational value of moving pictures ought not to be taxed." He opposed excess profits taxes, and said local as well as national taxes should come down. Abolition of tax exempt securities by constitutional amendment he strongly urged.

TARIFF

The Fordney-McCumber law has secured abundant revenue and brought prosperity, he said, advising against tariff tinkering as "disturbing and harmful."

SHIPPING

Until the merchant fleet can be disposed of to advantage, it will be administered "as economically as possible" under plans devised by the Shipping Board.

PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS

Resumption of flood control work on the Mississippi and Colorado rivers; improvement of the Lakes-Gulf waterway, development of the St. Lawrence waterway, and power development in northeastern states should all be encouraged.

RAILROADS

Congress should await the supreme court's decision on the recapture clause of the railroad law before new legislation on rate-making. The railroad labor board should be left undisturbed until some other tribunal is agreed on between capital and labor.

Permissive consolidation of railroads should be tried, to be followed, if a failure, by compulsory consolidation. The freight rate structure should be reorganized at once.

COURTS

A commission should be named to revise the laws. Two more federal judges should be provided for the southern district of New York, one in the northern district of Georgia, and two more in the Circuit court of appeals for the eighth circuit. A commission should be created to expedite court business.

Government prison reform is needed. Two reformatories should be provided—one for women, one for first offenders. A bureau of criminal investigation should be established.

GOVERNMENT SERVICE

In one sentence he recommended reorganization and improvement of the civil service.

IDENTIFICATION should be added to the department of justice.

PROHIBITION
The President referred to the treaty being negotiated with Great Britain to stop rum smuggling, and said the coast guard ought to be provided with fast motor boats to catch rum runners. Sources of liquor should be "rigidly regulated" and every effort made to stop interstate traffic. Urging co-operation of state and nation, he said disrespect for the prohibition law is a menace, and said citizens should not only obey the law, but let it be known they are opposed to others violating it.

THE NEGRO
He advocated strict anti-lynching laws, and formation of a commission to study the negro problem from industrial and economical angles.

CIVIL SERVICE

This should be maintained, Mr. Coolidge said. He advocated adding first, second, and third-class postmasters, and the field force of the prohibition service to the classified list.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS

He opposed a "pork barrel" public buildings bill, but advocated an annual appropriation of $5,000,000 to provide needed government buildings.

REGULATORY LAWS

He advised laws to prevent harbor pollution, regulate aviation, radio interference, loading of ships, Alaskan fisheries. Revision of Federal trade commission procedure is needed, he said.

ARMY AND NAVY

Both services have been reduced "to the danger point," he said. Both should be strengthened. Additional planes are needed for the Army, and additional submarines for the Navy. Panama canal defenses should be perfected. Hating war, America should avoid "weakness that invites imposition."

INSULAR POSSESSIONS

He unqualifiedly endorsed administration of the Philippines by Gen. Leonard Wood and gave similar recommendation to all other administrators of island possessions.

EDUCATION AND WELFARE

He advocated child labor and minimum wage amendments to the constitution, and creation of an education department, with its head a member of the cabinet.

IMMIGRATION

Immigration should be carefully restricted, with immigrants selected abroad, and registration of aliens here, so that only those intending to become Americans could remain.

VETERANS AND BCNUS

He said the veterans must be given every care; the service in their behalf "must be clean"; promised to remedy evils disclosed by the Senate investigation, and recommended that all government hospitals be permitted to treat free all veterans of all wars, and that new hospitals be built for such purpose. He urged careful consideration of veterans' legislation to be proposed by the American Legion. Of the bonus, he disposed in this sentence:

"But I do not favor granting of a bonus."

COAL

Public welfare requires reduction of fuel prices, the president said. Neither should fuel famines be tolerated. He urged careful consideration of the coal commissions' report; said publicity about the industry was probably as far as the government could go in controlling wages and prices in normal times; opposed government ownership and operation of mines, and requested power to name a commission to act in fuel emergencies to prevent famines, profiteering and strikes.

The Hodge - Podge
By a Paragrapher with a Soul

GET UNDERSTANDING:—A scorder seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not; but knowledge is easy unto him that understandeth.—Proverbs 14: 6.

The President's Message

President Coolidge, in making tax reduction the leading recommendation of his message to congress, has sensed the feeling of the country in regard to the matter and disregarded the wishes of the small minority of radicals who want to put the excess profits features back in the federal tax law and increase the surtaxes.

"Of all services which Congress can render to the country, I have no hesitation in declaring this one to be paramount," he said. "The country wants this measure to have the right-of-way over all others."

Previous to the opening of congress, President Coolidge declared himself squarely behind the proposal for tax reduction made by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon. The mild-mannered man created somewhat of a stir when he announced recently that congress would be able to reduce income taxes $323,000,000 if no extraordinary expenditures are made.

This, of course, eliminates the consideration of a soldiers' bonus, and the president again followed the cue of the secretary of the treasury, when he declared himself unequivocally opposed to the bonus at this time.

The president made it very plain that "minding our own business" is to continue to be the foreign policy of the United States, meanwhile recognizing our responsibility in helping others, but "reserving to the decision of our own judgment the time, the place and the method."

But the president clearly recognizes that domestic questions are the main problem of the country and that financial stability is vital. Protecting the budget system and reduction of taxes are the principal things that

Times have cert'nly changed—when Daddy left home in th' early days, th' fam'ly didn't know whether he'd get back alive; now, when th' rest o' th' fam'ly leave home, he don't know whether they'll get back alive!

Only State That Can Do It
(St. Louis Globe-Democrat)

Tpis is morally middling certain. Two presidential candidates can't be nominated from California; though Ohio has turned the trick in her time.

MOMIES

Big Feature at Castle

Rex Beach's story of the Klondike gold rush, "The Spoilers," has lost none of its glamor, none of its vividness and none of its drama in the years that have passed since it was written—and that have passed since it was first put on the screen ten years ago by Colonel Selig. The new version, produced by Jesse D. Hampton, with Lambert Hillyer directing, was shown last night at the Castle theatre and it held the big audience completely in its grasp. It will be seen again today and Thursday. The production is on a bigger and more spectacular scale than was the original as was to be expected, seeing how rapid the progress and technique of making pictures has been, and the great delight staged between the hero and the villain surpasses that of a decade ago.

"The Spoilers" is a true picture of life in the Klondike gold rush and the attempt of certain unprincipled adventurers to jump the claims of the early miners. Its story has a peculiar fascination over the minds of red-blooded Americans. The picture is one of the best made in recent years and there is no doubt that it will repeat the big success of its first screen incarnation.

The cast is certainly one of the most notable that has ever been seen in one photoplay. It reads like a "Who's Who" of the screen—Milton Sills, Barbara Bedford, Anna Q. Nilsson, Noah Beery, Robert Edeson, Mitchell Lewis, Wallace MacDonald, Ford Sterling, Robert McKim, Sam de Grasse, John Elliott, Louie Fazenda, Kate Price, Rockcliffe Fellowes, Gordon Russell, Albert Roscoe, Tom McGuire and Jack Curtis.

A Crook Play

A fine cast appears in the new Edwin Carewe production, "Mighty Lak' a Rose," released by First National and to be shown again today at the Princess Theatre.

In this cast are Dorothy Mackail, a pretty young English girl, who has been appearing lately in the Ziegfeld Follies; James Rennie, leading man in "Shore Leave"; Sam Hardy, who is supporting Lenore Ulric in "Kiki"; Anders Randolf, Helene Montrose, Paul Panzer and Harry Short. Another fine actor who has a prominent part in the picture is Jean Bronte, a Scotch actress, an exceptionally intelligent dog.

"Mighty Lak' a Rose" is a crook play. It shows the power of music not only in "swell" society but in the underworld where desperate crooks plan desperate work. The story is a battle of a violin, in the hands of a beautiful and innocent girl against wayward souls. Mr. Carewe is said to have made a picture that is gripping in delineation of men and women who are gradually drawn from the wide and crooked path to the straight and narrow one. He has built up a smashing climax wherein some of these old, hardened crooks take on a social covering that allows them to enter society homes.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

From The Daily Republican

Monday, Dec. 7, 1908.

Three sons of J. B. Schlichte celebrated their birthday anniversary last Friday. It is a rather extraordinary occurrence for three brothers to have a birthday on the same day.

Miss Ethel Kunz entertained at dinner yesterday the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. Jake Norris of Cambridge City, Mr. Walter Jordan of Connersville and Miss Nellie Lyons of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Newkirk of North Morgan street announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Flossie to Mr. Will Winship, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Winship. The wedding will occur at the home of the bride's parents, December 22.

It is an assured fact that Rushville will be represented upon the Lyceum platform some time in the near future. The Daily Student, the official publication of Indiana University, announces a proposed trip through California, by a concern company, recently organized in the university, of which Miss Florence Fraze of this city is a member. Miss Fraze will sing soprano in the company.

Mrs. Douglas Madden, who underwent an operation at the sanitarium last week, is improving rapidly.

Something new and novel in the way of entertainment may be seen at the Grand theatre tonight. The old fiddlers' contest promises to be one of the most laughable affairs ever presented here. Many contestants have already entered and will make an earnest endeavor to win the many valuable prizes which have been offered by the liberal business men of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Mattock came down from Indianapolis Sunday to spend the day with Mr. Mattock's brother, Mr. D. F. Mattock and sisters, Mrs. Thomas Bates and Mrs. T. J. Fox. Mrs. Fox leaves for Colorado, Wednesday.

John L. Hostetter of New Salem left last week for California, where he will spend the winter with his brother.

Mr. Ed Lee is visiting her son, Dr. John Lee, in Indianapolis, for a short time.

COACHES SET A FAST CLIP, WIN

County Basketball Mentors Display Their Wares in Rushville For The First Time

DEFEAT WESTLAND QUINTET

Net Team Composed Mostly of Former High School Stars Downed by Score of 47-22

The Rush County Coaches team showed their wares Wednesday night when they downed the fast Westland independent team, 47 to 22, in a game played on the Modern Appliance floor before a good sized crowd of basket fans.

The Coaches displayed fast team work, and soon after the game was under way, they began to take the lead, and the score mounted. The Westland team, composed for the most part of former Carthage high school stars, was fast, but was unlucky on the basket at times, failing to make many easy shots.

Means led the scoring of the Coaches with eight field goals, while Headlee and Seales contributed their share. Dyer and Moore for the visiting team were the bright lights, and broke through for several good shots. The score at the first half was 20 to 8. The line-up and summary:

COACHES 47 WESTLAND 22

Scales F Dyer

Means F Moore

Headlee C John White

Hinchman G Hankins

Royalty G James White

Substitutions, Coaches, Patterson, Jinks, Hyatt; Westland, Addison, Collin. Field goals, Headlee 4, Means 8, Scales 3, Patterson 2, Jinks 3, Dyer 3, Moore 2, John White, Hankins, Addison; fouls, Royalty, Means 3, Scales 3, Patterson 2, Dyer, Moore, Hankins. Referee Litherland, Indianapolis.

Romeos Win Opener

The Rushville Romeos defeated the Rushville Kelts, 21 to 19 in an overtime game played Wednesday night on the Modern Appliance floor, as a curtain raiser to the Coaches-Westland game.

The Kelts were leading at the half but the Romeos had too much of a comeback for them. The winners won the game without the services of two regulars, Tabor and Ruby. The Romeos play the Brightwood Independents of Indianapolis here December 17.

The line-up and summary:

ROMEOS 21 KELTS 19

Dagler F Moore

Herkless F Kelly

Culp C Talbert

Woods G Davis

Downey G Poston

Substitutions, Smith for Woods, Woods for Dagler, Dagler for Woods; Kelts, Adams for Talbert, Talbert for Moore, Hill for Davis, Davis for Hill. Field goals, Dagler, Herkless, 2, Culp 3, Moore 2, Talbert 3. Adams; foul goals, Dagler 6, Herkless 2, Culp, Moore, 3, Talbert 2, Kelley, Davis.

THREE GAMES ON FAIRVIEW'S MENU

Rushville High School Girls to Play Curtain Raiser to Fairview-Milton Game

A. C.'S MEET MORRISTOWN

Fairview is expecting a warm time Friday night when three of its teams tangle with visiting fives. The first game of the evening, which begins at 6:30 o'clock will be between the high school girls and the Rushville high school girls.

In the next till the Fairview and Milton high school boys will clash. This is their second meeting, as Milton won the first game, 21 to 13, and the game Friday will be hotly contested.

The Fairview A. C. team meets the Morristown team in the final game of the evening. This contest originally was scheduled for Saturday night, but was pushed up for the Friday night bill. These two teams fought hard recently, when Fairview won 34 to 30.

The Rushville girl's game is expected to be a good one, as the Rushville team won from the Fairview girls on the local floor a few weeks ago by a close score of 16 to 13.

HITTIN' 'EM AND MISSIN' 'EM

HERE'S THE COLTS, JR.

Rushville is getting as bad as Newcastle in having teams in the field. Enters now the third team, or Colts, Jr., who will play the second team at Greensburg Friday night. The regular Colt aggregation will journey over to Connerville for a game with their second team. ••••

OUR ALL STATE TEAM

Hittin' 'em is goin' to organize a Scribe's team. We're ready to book games now:

Here's the line-up: Forwards—Markin' 'em Up, Newcastle; Hoosier, Richmond; Watchin' the Fools, Muncie.

Centers—Hittin' 'em, Rushville; Press Box, Kokomo.

Guards—Casual Comment, Vincennes; Hardwood Hamper, Columbus, Bobby (Hot Dog), Frankfort.

Subs: Harris, Washington; Thru the Hoop, Shelbyville; After the Ball, Marion. Booking manager, Shootin' 'em, Indianapolis News; General manager, boss, coach, score keeper and secretary, Mr. Ihssan, Anderson. ••••

Gosh, we made a mistake, Georgie and Bobby couldn't play on the same team without getting in a wrangle and Harris of Washington would do anything to make Georgie ineligible. ••••

WATCH THESE BIRDS, GANG
Carthage, Ind.
Dec. 5th.

Dear Hittin' 'em:—

The Blue Birds of Carthage will take Sir Walter Raleigh into camp Thursday night by 20 points. See if we are not right. The Birds are ready to fly south, and will land in Rushville at the March tourney. Prepare that roost. Yours,

ANOTHER BLUE BIRD

Say, Carthage, what daja think we are building down here—an ark? We've gotta stable, not a bird cage. This county barn is for horses, with a stall set aside for the Cows, from Moscow. ••••

MAYBE WE'LL DREAD 'EM TOO
The Spiders are having tough luck with their webb. About tourney time we'll wager that they will be ready to stage a real comeback, and even Milroy will dread to meet 'em.

WEBSTER WAS TOO MODERN FOR US

Just as Newcastle was getting ready to call their team "Alibis", one of the scribes suggested the name of White Elephants, but that didn't fit, so they have doped them the "Trojans". Webster gave 'em the name, but we went back further than Webster—Noah found the Lions far more courageous, and always full of fight.

Indianapolis high schools pry open the can Friday night. Didja ever hear tell of 'em before ••••

They're Still Ordered
Dear Hittin' 'em—I am a booster of the Rushville high school. What has become of those glass banking boards that you said were ordered several weeks ago? Yours,

A DONATOR

A BLOW UP IS COMIN'

CITY OFFICIALS
GIVE GAS PLANT
THE ONCE OVER

Getting ready for the balloon to go up Friday night, eh, Frankfort?

Take your gas masks along, too, Bobby, or the Kokos might scorch your Hot Doggies.

Washington (not the father of our country, but Washington Indiana) is going to play at Sanborn Friday night. Is that a suburb of Podunk, or is it as big as Passiac, N. J., George?

Bedford plays at Bloomington Friday night. If Bloomington upsets the dope and wins, we will be in a terrible predicament with Shelbyville. They figure down there that the Camels rank in first place, but from what we hear from Bloomington they think that Shelby—well is just rank, and that's all.

RUSHVILLE TEAMS TO BE IN THREE GAMES

Varsity And Third String Players Going to Greensburg for Cooley's Friday Night

The Rushville high school basketball squad will figure in three games Friday night, with the varsity team playing at Greensburg, and with the second team playing the second team at Connerville. Other players and substitutes will form a third team that will tangle as a curtain raiser at Greensburg with the second team of that city.

The usual second team line-up will be taken to Connerville with Wainwright and Arbuckle, forwards; Christopher center; Conover and Cherry guards. The team that will meet the second team from Greensburg will probably start with Joyce and Miller at forwards, Lakin at center; Warth and Sherman guards.

Moscow has four teams: the high school varsity has won six straight games; the Calves have won three straight games; the Independents have won three straight without a loss; the high school girls have been defeated only once and that by a lone point. This makes one defeat in fifteen games for Moscow teams, and they are still going.

What would you think if you saw Moscow line-up without a Gosnell or a Tillison? Well we have another name now; it is Alexander. Both the high school and Independents have Alexanders.

Yes, Rushville, we want to congratulate you on your recent victories. A one point victory is always well earned. And too, we always have a warm spot in our hearts for Rushville. Very truly,

FIFTEEN I. U. MEN TO RECEIVE SWEATERS

With Only Two Lost By Graduation, Prospects Are Bright For Good Team Next Year

BOTH PLAYED WELL THIS YEAR

Bloomington, Ind., Dec. 6.—Fifteen members of the Indiana University football squad which closed its season with a victory over Purdue, will be awarded "I" sweaters, according to the announcement made early this week at a football banquet. All of the men receiving the coveted letter participated in the Purdue game. The letter men chose Joe Sloate, of Akron, O., to captain the 1924 team.

The list of new "I" men follows:

Captain Butler, Wabash; Captain-Elect Joe Sloate, Akron, O., Elmer Wilkins, Ft. Wayne; Harry Hoblick, Lafayette; Irvin Springer, Evansville; George Fisher, Medora; Elder Eberhart, Evansville; Max Lorber, Columbia City; Earl Moomaw, Bluffton; Bill Prucha, Chicago; Laurence Marks, Wabash; Dick Woodward, Lapel; John Zivich, East Chicago; Bill Zaizer, Indianapolis; and Sam Ninness, Ironwood, Mich.

With only two men lost by graduation, prospects are brighter for a winning team next fall. Elmer Wilkins, hero of the Purdue game, and Elder Eberhart, regular ends, will not be available for service. The loss of these men undoubtedly will be felt keenly, but W. A. Ingram, who coached the Crimson eleven this fall, believes that there will be many capable men on hand to fill the vacancies.

EIGHT ARRESTS IN SPENCER PROSE

the holdup so there would be no confusion.

The men drilled for the robbery and knew every detail of their part, it is said.

The other eight men in the alleged bandit squad will be arrested within a short time, authorities said. Four or five left the state after the robbery but they are all "spotted".

Floyd Young, prosecuting attorney of Knox county, obtained part of the information leading to the arrests from questioning prisoners in the Knox county jail.

INTEREST TURNS TO STATE MEETING

day's canvass for members, that this year's total, would at least be equalled, if not bettered. One team in Noble township is reported to have the record, according to early reports, having obtained seven new members to the Farm Bureau, in addition to obtaining renewals from all of their prospects.

It is definitely settled now that there will be no speaker from outside the county at the annual meeting of the county bureau. The sessions will begin at ten o'clock in the morning and continue through the afternoon, and will be much of the same character as they were last year. The reports of the county agent and the county officers will be heard and the program for the coming year will be outlined. Election of officers for the forthcoming year will be about the last order of business.

NEWCASTLE LAYMAN SPEAKS TO MEN HERE

Arvid Zetterberg Discusses Men's Work in Church at First Presbyterian Supper.

SHORT PROGRAM IS GIVEN

About forty men of the First Presbyterian church sat down to the rabbit supper served in the basement of the church Wednesday evening, and which was prepared by some of the ladies of the church.

As an opening number on the program the men enjoyed a "sing" and then were entertained with a program which consisted of two most entertaining readings by Miss Vera Reynolds of Glenwood, beautiful vocal solos by Miss Bernice Kelso, and two humorous readings by Mrs. Gibson Wilson, wife of the pastor of the church.

The address of the evening was given by Arvid Zetterberg, an elder in the First Presbyterian church of Newcastle and manager of the Inn.

The entertaining committee for this meeting is composed of Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Stevens.

Anna Holling Mills of that city, it proved a most helpful address, coming from a layman to the members of the church. The main theme in his talk pointed the way for men's work in the church. Rev. M. M. LeCount, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Newcastle, accompanied Mr. Zetterberg to this city and brought greetings from his church to the Rushville church.

Nothing but words of praise were heard today regarding the program which was rendered at the meeting, and the delicious supper which was served by the ladies.

GIVES DAMAGING EVIDENCE

VOTE ON TARIFF VS FREE TRADE

Great Britain To Decide Whether To Embark On Policy Of Protective Tariff Or Free Trade

TO BE ON PARTY LINES

Premier Baldwin Asks For Mandate To Inaugurate Tariff To Remedy Employment Situation

By P. M. SARTL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

London, Dec. 6—Polling opened this morning all over Great Britain and the six-county area of Ulster, in what promises to be the fiercest, clean-cut election on party lines for the past twenty years.

In a nutshell, the single problem before the electors is whether Britain is to embark on a policy of protective tariffs or to continue to wave the banner of free trade.

The tariff question was raised at the 1906 and 1910 elections, but there were innumerable side issues; in the first mentioned clash there was the natural reaction against a conservative government after ten years unbroken rule and in 1910 there were burning domestic problems, such as the abolition or otherwise of the House of Lords' veto powers and Lloyd George's violent campaign for old-age pensions, land taxation, etc.

There were two elections in 1910 (one in January and one in December), giving almost identical results—and the Conservatives, pledged to a tariff policy, very nearly won. The Conservatives actually secured a majority over the Liberals—then reckoned as the only serious second party, and who were then in power—and it was only by means of an agreement with the Labor party and Irish Nationalists that Premier Asquith was able to continue in power. The Irish Nationalists' vote was frankly pro-Irish; and, like the Labor vote, was not necessarily anti-tariff.

Today Conservative Premier Stanley Baldwin frankly asks for a mandate to inaugurate a tariff, which he is convinced is the only remedy for the serious unemployment problem. Baldwin, only premier for less than seven months, found himself bound by the pledge of the late Premier Andrew Bonar Law, that during the life of the Parliament elected November, 1922, there would be no material change of tariff policy. In announcing his decision to dissolve Parliament and call a fresh election, Baldwin declared that he felt it was the only course for an honest man, and he simply asked the electors for a mandate to carry out his policy—not very definitely defined just yet, except that he promised there would be no taxes on wheat or meat, butter, eggs, cheese, bacon and kindred foodstuffs.

In reply to this policy the Liberals have little to offer beyond a flat opposition to tariffs in any shape or form. Labor's panacea is the "Capital Levy," or a graduated levy on all incomes and fortunes, large or small.

While normally experts would predict a comfortable victory for the Conservatives, the tariff issue has always been so sharply contested in Britain that the most experienced are chary about pronosticating, and it is conceded that much depends on the women's vote—the housewife being regarded as more susceptible to agitations against any form of taxation which will touch her house-keeping accounts.

Some three thousand polling stations are being used today, mostly in town halls, schools, libraries, and other government and municipal buildings. School children at the elementary schools rejoiced in a holiday, as their classrooms were needed for voting. Most of the booths opened at 8 a.m. and will close at 8 p.m., but in industrial districts the Labor party generally exercised their prerogative of opening the booths an hour earlier and continuing until 9 p.m. (The extra two hours may

Results in most towns are as will be known tonight, commencing about 10:30 p.m., while country districts will not start counting until noon tomorrow. The complete results should be known by tomorrow evening, with the exception of a couple of University constituencies, which run at three or five day poll, and the remote Orkney and Shetland Islands, from which it frequently takes a week or ten days to receive reports.

72 OF REGIMENT LEFT

Martinsville, Ind., Dec. 6—Only 72 members of the 79th regiment, of volunteers in the Civil War are still living, according to a list received from the pension department in Washington. Two of the survivors live in Morgan county. The 79th was one of the first two regiments to plant their colors atop Missionary ridge after the Confederates had been repulsed.

Elwood—With only 25 arrests during November, Elwood police report the quietest month of the year.

WITH the holiday season but a few weeks away, thoughts turn naturally to the selection of suitable gifts for those near and dear to us. If the gift is for a woman—consider pearls. Account With This Strong Association

BECAUSE it is ABSOLUTELY SAFE. We loan on First Mortgages on improved Rushville and Rush County real estate.

BECAUSE we never go over two-thirds the value and generally about one-half.

BECAUSE with every payment our security gets better.

BECAUSE We HAVE NO BAD OR DOUBTFUL LOANS, and if any loss should develop in the future we have a fund of $3500.00 to take care of it. This fund can be used for no other purpose.

BECAUSE the title to the property is investigated and is "good" before we will accept the loan.

BECAUSE we require borrowers to carry insurance to protect us in case of loss by fire or storm, usually to the full amount of the loan.

BECAUSE we are under State Examination the same as Banks and Trust Companies.

BECAUSE our active officers are under a heavy SURETY Company bond.

BECAUSE you can deposit to suit your convenience and you can withdraw in whole or in part WITHOUT NOTICE.

BECAUSE WE PAY 6 PER CENT AND NOT 3 OR 4 PER CENT. If not withdrawn this interest draws interest as it is compounded.

BECAUSE if you do not own your own home, possibly we can help you accumulate enough to make your payment of a part of the purchase price and we can help you with the balance.

BECAUSE there are many more GOOD reasons and no BAD ones.

Drop in and see us, maybe we can be of some benefit to you.

We will be pleased to see you.
